

THE 100 MILE HOUSE FLYING CLUB & THE CARIBOO REGIONAL DISTRICT ARE PROUD TO HOST THE

4TH ANNUAL

AIRPORT APPRECIATION DAY & BBQ

Where:

108 Mile Ranch's South Cariboo Regional Airport

When:

Friday evening 22nd of August 2008 to Sunday morning 24th of August 2008

Pilots are encouraged to arrive on Friday evening at the 108 Mile Ranch (CZML - 123.2 Mhz) for a Wine & Cheese reception and socialization with other pilots, or all day Saturday for the party. You may tent under your wing, or make use of the arranged shuttle bus that will bring you to hotels/motels in the vicinity.

The Airport Appreciation Day & BBQ will be open to the public all day Saturday the 23rd August for Breakfast, Rides, Flour Bombing and other fun events.

In the evening we will enjoy a BBQ, followed by Live Music & Dance in the main hangar until well, we'll see!

Sunday morning we will depart from each other after a strengthening pancake breakfast!

What to bring:

Humor, Laughs, Jokes and flying stories ...

perhaps good aiming abilities for the (flour-)bombing of the target airfield!
